Approved For Release 2005/01/05 : CIA-RDP75-06

Khrushchev's Attitude

Editor, The Record:

and bely to clear up some phases of the cold war. An anti-Communist leaflet appeared in Vienna June 2 reading: "Roose-velf sold oul eastern Europe to Stalin Will Kennedy sell out West Europe to Kurushchev?" One picture in the paper was captioned: Khaashehee keeps wary eye on F. K. as they met yester-In examining this picture think Khrushchev's expression ales one of arrogance and sariona Another picture was caption of "I F. K. makes an early point with Khrushchev."

and Mrs. Kennedy to shake hands ments, all traced to Soviet Rus-and he friendly with the butcher of the Ukraine and Hungary. One picture shows Mrs. Kennedy treatize that President Kennedy in animated conversation with a reed to meet with Khrushchev Khrushchev, who is ogling her. It is unfortinate that this intelligible to the conversation with the converse here. gent charming, and highly religlous woman should have to associate with a man of such low character - an atheist who is dedicated to the destruction of all religion and to the enslavement of the people of all nations.

June 2 U. S. Senator Kenneth B. Keating said:

"The United States has caught Communist propagandists red-handed in distributing more than 30 forged documents supposedly written by American officials during the last 4 years."

Keating told the Senate that a c. 1. A. witness had reported June 2 to the internal-security subcommittee that the docusian propagands sources, were part of a Red plan to smear the U. S. They were also atmed he said, at sowing suspicion and dis River Edge, June 8, 1961. and stirring up free world becomes against their governments. Keating also mentioned a widely circulated forget 1957 letter, pure portedly by Governor Rockefeller to President Elsenhower, outlin-ing an alleged plan to win domi-nation of the world through American manipulation of military and economic aid.

I fully expect that various plukos, fellow travelers, dogooders, eggheads, and Commitnists will slander me for this letter. I honestly hope that some of President Kennedy's and Mrs. Konnedy's intelligence, honesty and charm have Khrushchev.